

Tuesday, March 30, 2010 | 1:00 p.m. - 2:00 p.m. ET

Follow this link to register.

Do you know what HR legislation is on the horizon — and what you'll need to do to comply?

Please join us as Chantel Sheaks, principal, Government Affairs, reviews the legislative trends from the first session of the 111th Congress. Chantel will predict what bills will be hot in 2010, and she'll tell you how those bills could impact your employee benefit plans, executive compensation, and labor and employment policies and practices if they become law.

Audience

This Webcast is intended for HR and benefits practitioners with responsibility for strategy, design, and administration of their company's health care plan, retirement plan, executive compensation program, and/or labor and employment policies. Please feel free to share this invitation with your colleagues.

Speakers

Chantel Sheaks, JD, principal, Government Affairs, is one of our pre-eminent technical experts and spokespersons in regard to Buck's interpretation of and position on regulations, legislation, and court decisions. She also participates in industry groups on behalf of Buck. Chantel is a contributing member of the Publications group responsible for developing technical publications that provide guidance and analysis to clients.

How to Register

Our Webcasts are offered free of charge. Follow this link to register. You can bookmark the URL upon registering for ease in returning to the Web page on the day of the Webcast. This Webcast will be recorded for your future use.

For more information about our Webcasts, contact Lorraine M. Smith at 203.352.1617 or Lorraine.M.Smith@buckconsultants.com.

Follow this link to register.